

JUDGE WILLIAMS TO VIRGINIANS

Southwest Candidate for Attorney-General Appeals to Democratic Voters.

FAVORS SINGLE BOOK LIST

Presses His Claim Also on the Ground of Party Loyalty.

Hon. Samuel W. Williams, candidate for the office of Attorney-General, gave out yesterday the following address:

To the Democratic Voters of Virginia:

I appeal to you to give me your support in the primary for the nomination for Attorney-General of Virginia.

As one who in his youth sadly felt the need of schools, I am an earnest advocate of the cause of public education in Virginia. The condition of our finances warrants the belief that in the near future Virginia will have ample resources to develop and improve her public free schools, and the great need of the schools, therefore, is not so much a want of money as it is the want of proper administration. Our new Constitution says in plain language that the State Board of Education shall select the text-books for use in the public free schools; my construction of this plain provision is that it means what it says, and this duty must be performed by the board itself, and cannot be delegated to committees in the counties and cities.

Only three members of the Board of Public Education—the Governor, Attorney-General and Superintendent of Public Instruction—are elected by the people. I favor the single list of text-books. My opponent, Major Anderson, is on record in favor of the multiple list. The issue between him and myself, on this important question, is plain and sharply defined; the Democrats who vote at the primary must decide between us. My nomination will commit the party to the support of the single list of school books. Major Anderson's nomination, on the other hand, will commit the party to the support of the multiple lists. The single list means uniformity of school books, greatly reduced prices, as compared with the multiple lists and present prices.

The party primary plan having been adopted, there will be no party convention; the Democratic record must be our platform; our new Constitution, for the first time, will be discussed in a purely party canvass. It has not only settled the question of white supremacy, but has inaugurated a new era in our State; has lowered the rate of the people's taxes, and at the same time increased the volume of our revenues, by imposing upon the corporate wealth of the State a just and fair proportion of taxation.

The Attorney-General has many important duties to perform in connection with the Corporation Commission, which is one of the most important branches of our State government. If elected, I pledge myself to a faithful, efficient and fearless performance of these duties, with fairness both to the people and to the corporations.

The Constitution provides that "the General Assembly shall enact laws preventing all trusts, combinations and monopolies inimical to the public welfare." It is our duty to see that these laws are enforced.

I have always been an earnest advocate of the rights of labor and of the laboring man, at the same time having due regard for the rights of capital.

If elected, I will strive to do my full duty, as the legal representative of the State and the people on all of these important questions.

At the close of the war I came out of the Confederate army a headless man. By dint of hard work I was able to obtain my license as a lawyer in 1865, and have since diligently prosecuted the study and practice of my chosen profession. In the great political battle of 1896, at the call of my party, I resigned the circuit judgeship, accepted the Democratic nomination for Congress in my district, and went down in the general crash of that eventful year; but I had the pleasure of having recorded in my favor more Democratic votes than have been cast for any candidate for Congress in my district.

I have at all times endeavored to respond to every call made upon me by my party, and shall ever stand ready to do so. I am the only candidate before the primary who resides in the southwest portion of our State. We most earnestly appeal to the Democrats in other sections of our State to give us at least one representative on our State ticket.

Pledging myself to a cordial and active support of our ticket when nominated, I confidently submit my humble claims to my fellow-Democrats of Virginia.

Your obedient servant,

SAMUEL W. WILLIAMS.

BETHANY HOME.

Interesting Closing Exercises of a Worthy Institution.

Editor of The Times-Dispatch: Sir,—Having been requested by some friends of the Bethany House to write a brief report of the closing exercises of this school and to ask the papers here to publish it, I do so with pleasure. Bethany House is an institution worthy, in my opinion, of the consideration, endorsement and help of all good people. It was established ten years ago by Mrs. L. W. Burroughs and her husband, one mile and a half north of Bon Air. The object of the institution is to give food, shelter, clothing, education and moral training to homeless and helpless children, and many destitute little ones have been able to thank God for this place, which has been a home to them indeed. For many years Mrs. Burroughs was sorely afflicted and had many physicians in the effort to secure the restoration of her health, but all in vain. She grew so much worse that her life was despaired of, until some kind friend interested her in divine healing, when she was soon completely restored by the Great Physician. She was so grateful to God for a new lease of health and life that she established this home, which has been supported entirely by voluntary contributions. I have heard Mrs. Burroughs say that with thirty odd children in the home, and not knowing at times where the next meal would come from, they had not gone without a meal since the establishment of the institution. I think there are nearly fifty children in the home now. The exercises at the closing of the school this year were held on the 15th instant, in an arbor built for the purpose in a grove near the home. Some fifteen or more people went out from Richmond to be present on the occasion. For fear of being too lengthy, I simply give the program, as follows:

Voluntary and doxology, by Miss Bohannon; prayer, singing by the children, "Perfectly acclimated"; hymn; competition for prize in geography—Pamela Purdie, Mary Colquitt, Mary Cardona; Praise Purdie was the winner; recitation by Bessie Mahoney; recitation by Bessie Moody; address by Mr. G. M. Smith; address by Mr. Sam Luberacki (a Christian Hebrew); examination on the Bible by Mr. Nugent.

Let me add that all were pleased with the excellent training these little people had evidently received, as manifested by their answers. Especially was this true of their Bible training, which seemed almost marvelous, considering the ages, the little ones quoting passages after passages, giving references, &c. A deep impression was made on the visitors by this and by the splendid behavior and excellent order. The children were in the meeting some four hours, with only a brief intermission, yet not the slightest disorder was manifested by any of the children, who ranged in age from, I should say, four to sixteen years.

ELEGANT AFFAIR.

Concert, Recitation and Fireworks on the Lawn.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SCOTTSVILLE, VA., June 19.—Quite the most enjoyable entertainment of the last few weeks was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Raine, of Hutton, Friday night. The guests were highly entertained by a musical programme, interspersed with recitations, the occasion being the commencement exercises of the pupils of Miss Daisy Davis, assisted by several of the company.

Following is the programme: Instrumental duet, Yeta Phillips, Misses Daisy Davis and Marjorie Harris; instrumental duet, Serpentine Dance, Misses Daisy Evans and Master Edwin Raine; recitation, "Loving," Miss Mae Deal; instrumental duet, Miss Louise East; instrumental duet, Master Edwin Raine and Miss Sue Raine; recitation, Miss Ruth Gillespie; instrumental duet, Peruvian Dances, Misses Clara Pitts and Marjorie Harris; recitation, Miss Rachel Beal.

The guests were then invited out on the piazza, where Miss Nora Dillard presided, in cream lace and blue ribbons, at the huge punch bowl, and under the soft light of the moon, the guests enjoyed a crystal dinner a beverage fit for the gods. Daisies and ferns, in their dainty, woodland beauty, were everywhere around the punch bowl, on the landings, lanked upon the mantels, and as a centerpiece for the table, whereon was found a most delicious and appetizing spread.

Mrs. N. T. Schuler, in a handsome gown of cream net, trimmed in bow knots of satin ribbon, dispensed coffee and quilled satin ribbons, olives, salads, sweetened nuts, leas and cakes were among the many attractions of the dining room.

The house of Mr. and Mrs. Raine is beautifully situated on a high point overlooking the James, and the moonlight on the river made a picture not soon to be forgotten.

There were fireworks on the lawn and more music in the house, and then the guests drove home with only pleasant memories of a happy evening.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. George Tapscott and children, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Raine, Master Edwin and Miss Sue Raine, Miss Daisy Davis, of Louisa; Mrs. Brown, Miss Binger, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Schuler, Miss Cornett, Misses Nora Dillard, Ruth Gillespie, Mary E. Warwick, Purdie and Marjorie Harris, Marietta Powers, Clara Pitts, Mae, Louise, and Rachel Beal, Elsie McCutcheon, Rosa Farrar, Messrs. Marion Pitts, Tom Lock, Charles Durr, R. Gault, F. Fraze, Harris, Norman Daniel and Bedroo Beal.

HEAR PROTESTS AGAINST CHANGE

Executive Committee of Supreme Council of Royal Arcanum Called to Meet.

REVOLT IS NOW WIDESPREAD

Outline of General Complaint That Will Be Made—Sensational Rumor.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

NEW YORK, June 19.—The revolt in the Royal Arcanum over the proposed increase in the assessments has quickly spread, until it involves every jurisdiction in the order. Reports coming in from all over this country and Canada indicate an overwhelming sentiment among the 30,000 members against putting the proposed new rates into effect.

The demand for a reconsideration by the Supreme Council of the whole question of the cost of insurance has become so universal and insistent that the Executive Committee of the Supreme Council has decided to hold a special session in Boston on June 25th to consider protests against the new insurance rates.

The general complaint is: First, The proposed rates are higher than is justified by the mortality experience in the order.

Second, They were promulgated without notice to the rank and file of the membership.

Third, The proposed rates are unfairly apportioned and bear too hard on the old members who founded the Royal Arcanum.

Fourth, There is no guarantee that the rates will not be jumped again, after the lapse of a few years, just as they were jumped in 1888, and now again in 1905.

One of the old line insurance companies is rumored to have held out $500,000 to be devoted to the disruption of the Royal Arcanum. There is no proof of the truth of the rumor, which has not circulated outside of Arcanum circles.

RUN OVER AND KILLED.

Southern Enjoined From Building Fence Around Property.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

SALISBURY, N. C., June 19.—Late Saturday night, while returning home from this city, Mr. Thomas Carr, a well-known citizen of Rowan county, was instantly killed by being run over by a north-bound special express train on the Southern Railway.

State Senator R. Lee Wright of this city, who owns considerable property in East Spencer, and which has a frontage along the line of the right of way of the Southern Railway Company, has published a statement, Mr. Wright forbids the Southern Railway Company to place any building or structure on the above named company from further work along the line of the right of way, which is being constructed around his shops and yards at Spencer. The holders of property along the line of right of way a few years ago erected a number of dwellings, fronting on or near the line, and now that a fence about ten feet high is being erected on the line a loud protest has been raised by the property owners.
